

Beans And Beer

A Talking Blues by Rick McKeon

(spoken)

1. Well, along about last Saturday night,
2. I was layin' in bed in quite a stew.
3. Well, there is a moral to this tale,

G

1. I was havin' some brews and feelin' alright, So I
2. If you'd a' been there, you'd a' said so too, Cause
3. If you're a little bit weak or maybe frail, then

A

(sung)

1. Thought I'd have me some - - - chili beans.
2. All at once them beans they - - - met up with that beer.
3. Don't be mixing up them - - - beans and beer.

(spoken)

1. So I ate them beans and they tasted great,
2. Then came a rumbling a' way down there,
3. Cause' if your constitution is anything like mine,

G

1. By the time I got to bed it was pretty late, But I
2. and a contamination of the air, And I'm a
3. Things can be going along pretty fine, But

(sung)

1. Laid me down with - - - out a care.
2. Thinkin' to myself, well - - - I declare!
3. That combination is - - - something to fear.

Chorus: (sung)

G

Beans and beer boys, beans and beer,

Makes a sound that is . . . loud and clear.

G

Keep on eatin' them beans and beer,
