

Timberline Lake

A Quiet Rest Along The Trail

There is a quietness and a stillness here that is profound. It flows like water and seeps into my very being. All stress and tension is washed away, and I become part of the natural flow. I feel like I am floating, and I would be content to sit here all day!