

Bullfrog Lake

Lunch Break

We are lying in the soft grass of a high mountain meadow near a rushing stream. We have just finished our lunch and are soaking up the warm alpine sun. The air is absolutely pure and carries the fragrance of flowers.

The bubbling sound of the creek blends with the wind to produce a relaxing symphony.