

Fin Dome From Dollar Lake

The Joy Is In The Journey

It's been quit a hike from Woods Creek to Dollar Lake and we still have a way to go before we reach Rae Lakes. I used to constantly look at the goal and wonder how far we had to go. Now I just enjoy the hike knowing we will get there eventually. I think there is a lesson in there somewhere. I have a sign hanging in my living room saying, "The joy is in the journey."
