

The Ballad Of Jed Clampett (4/4)

Paul Henning

G

Am D

1. Come and listen to my story 'bout a man named Jed.
2. First thing you know old Jed's a millionaire.
3. Well, now it's time to say good-bye to Jed and all his kin.

D

G

1. Poor mountaineer, barely kept his fam'ly fed.
2. Kin folks said, "Jed, move away from here."
3. We would like to thank you folks for kindly dropping in.

C

C#dim

1. Then one day he was shootin' at some food,
2. Said that California is the place he ought to be,
3. You're all invited back again to this locality,

D

G

1. And up through the ground came a bubbling crude,
2. So he loaded up the truck and they moved to Beverly,
3. To have a heaping helping of their hospitality.

G

1. Oil, that is, black gold, Texas tea.
2. Hills, that is, swimming pools, movie stars.
3. Beverly Hillbillies, that's what they call 'em now.

Nice folks, Y'all come back now, hear?